

UMSL | Graduate School

Graduate Certificate Trauma Studies

Degree Program

- Educating graduate students about trauma and trauma-related issues is a major goal for the Center for Trauma Recovery.
- A minimum of 18 credit hours numbered 5000 or above.
- Students must be admitted to the Clinical Psychology graduate program in order to receive specialized training in trauma therapy or research.
- Successful applicants have actual working experience in trauma or anxiety/affective disorders research.

Program Website

<http://www.umsl.edu/psychology/ctr/>

Application Requirements

1. Admission into the PhD in Clinical Psychology Program
2. Official transcripts from all universities attended.
 - a. International applicants are required to document English proficiency by providing scores from an internationally accepted standardized examination before a decision is made on admission.

Gainful Employment Disclosure

For more information about our graduation rates, the median debt of students who completed the program, and other important information, please visit our website at <http://umsl.edu/go/Br>

Application Deadline

The deadline for receipt of all admission materials is December 15 of each year.

Application Fee

$50 for domestic applicants; $40 for international applicants

Program Director

Dr. Steven Bruce

(314) 516-7204

brucece@umsl.edu